

Dear Editor,

My friend and Shipmate Bill Hogan died on Tuesday, March 22, 2011. A month prior to his passing, Bill sent me a copy of an article that his local newspaper requested, regarding his service during World War II. It was to appear in a special edition, Honoring Veterans Day. After reading the copy, Bill sent to me I called to thank him and suggested that he submit it to The Tin Can Sailor Newspaper. Unfortunately, this did not happen so I called his family to see if they would like to have it published in the Tin Can Sailor paper and they would be very pleased to have it published in Bills honor.

Thank you,
